Rental Statements: Why doesn’t my rental statement show the entire month?

Statement periods are from the 11th of the previous month to the 10th of the current month. If the 10th is on a weekend or holiday, then the statement start date and end dates will be adjusted to the next business days. Rents are due on the 1st with a grace period until end of day on the 3rd; we then pursue any unpaid rents so that all rents are collected by the 10th and can be distributed to our clients.
